

The AYES Model

Automotive Youth Education Systems

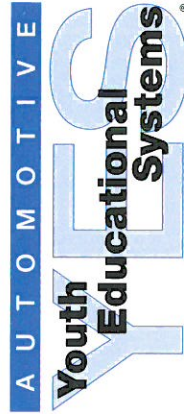

- A Partnership Among...
 - Automotive vehicle, parts, tool and equipment manufacturers
 - Dealer and trade associations
 - State Department of Education and Labor
 - Independent aftermarket service providers and secondary schools

The Strength of the Model

- NATEF Accredited
- Advisory Committee Support
- Planned Activities
 - Job Shadowing
 - Career Days / Interviews
 - SkillsUSA PDP
 - Internships
- Local Employer Participation

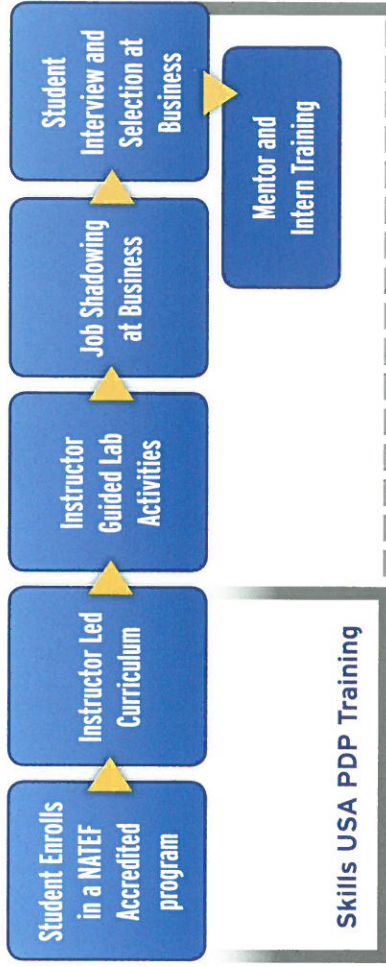

Qualification Criteria

- Interest and Eligibility
 - Parental, teacher and counselor endorsement
 - Attendance, discipline record
- Academic Achievement
- Completed Job Shadowing
- Job Application & Interview
 - Age
 - Employability screens
- Instructor / Advisory Committee Recommendation

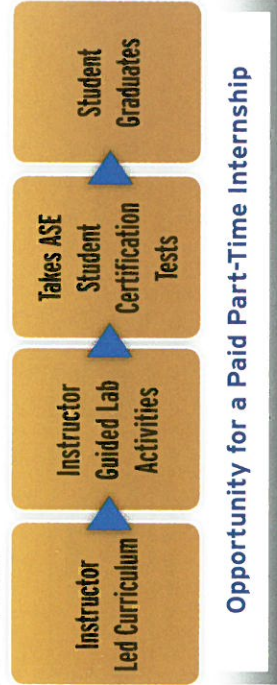

Students at all 1,100+ NATEF-accredited secondary automotive programs are eligible to pursue AYES Student qualification.

1st Year

Paid Summer Internship Under Mentor at Business

2nd Year

AYES Big Picture

- Non Profit Organization
- 33 Corporate Partners
- Independent Board of Directors
- AYES Model: Delivered to high school automotive students
 - More than 350 Affiliated Schools
 - 600 Instructors
 - 3,500 Participating Employers

Welcome to AYES

Recognized Leader in Workforce Development

- AYES is recognized by the US Department of Education for helping to raise the rigor of career and technical education (CTE)
- The US Department of Labor has acknowledged AYES for its key contributions to workforce development

AYES: Part of the ASE Industry Education Alliance

- Combines the resources of:
 - NATEF, ASE and ATMC
 - The automotive service and repair industry (OEMs, program groups, independent repair shops, trade associations etc.)
 - State and local departments of education
 - Employers in the local community
- Proven school-to-career process

For more information about AYES Please Contact:

Email:

Info@AYES.org

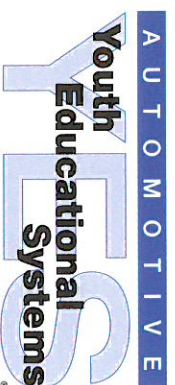

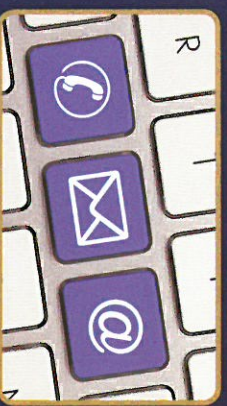

Website:

www.AYES.org

Phone:

703-669-6677

888-339-2937

CONNECTING YOUR STUDENT'S EDUCATION WITH FUTURE CAREERS

AYES is part of the ASE Industry Education Alliance

